

Chariton Courier.

Keytesville, Mo., Saturday, July 27, 1878.

STATE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE,
E. H. NORTON, OF PLATTE.
SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC SCHOOLS,
R. D. SHANNON, OF BUCHANAN.
REGISTER OF LANDS,
J. E. McHENRY, OF JACKSON.
RAILROAD COMMISSIONER,
A. M. SEVIER, OF NEWTON.

SULLIVAN has instructed for Mansur.
DEMOCRATS, be sure and attend the primary election Saturday, August 10th, and select the best men for county officers.

CIRCUS men "got in their work" on the COURIER this week, and the class of reading matter presented is a little different from our usual style.

DEMOCRATS, if you neglect to attend the primary election on Saturday, August 10th, you will have failed to discharge that duty which you owe to yourself and your country.

A NOTICE of the picnic near Westville, and some other matters of importance, together with a number of unusually interesting communications, were crowded out this week.

By reference to the list of appointments for political meetings it will be seen that the place of meeting on Monday, the 29th, has been changed from near the Doxy farm to the grove just east of Dalton.

ALL Democrats who desire to participate in the selection of the best men to fill the various county offices, have a right, and it is their duty, to vote at the primary election to be held August 10th.

In another column, will be found an article published by Judge Isbell, reviewing his administration. It contains several tables relating to the financial condition of the county, which will prove interesting to the reader.

THE announcement of Mr. C. J. Via, of Salisbury, as a candidate for public administrator of Chariton county, appears in this issue. Mr. Via has been a resident in this county for a number of years, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office.

At a meeting of the Central Committee held at the court house on the 24 of July, when all the townships were represented, the following resolution was adopted, to-wit:

Resolved, that all Democrats are entitled to vote at the primary election, and that the qualifications shall be determined by the judges of the election.

By reference to the proceedings of the Executive Committee published in this paper, it will be seen that in the matter of the qualifications of voters they have simply reaffirmed the action of the Central Committee in the following language:

Second—That all persons who shall be legal voters at the November election, and are Democrats, shall be entitled to vote at said primary election, the qualifications of such persons offering to vote to be determined by the judges of the election.

In this matter we think that the Central and Executive Committees have acted wisely. The primary election in each township will be entrusted to the management of honorable and discreet Democrats, acting in the capacity of judges and clerks, whose duty it shall be to pass upon the qualifications of the citizens who present themselves at the polls for the purpose of voting, and as the primary election is simply the mode adopted by the Democratic party this year to select Democratic candidates, none but Democrats are expected or should be permitted to take part in such nominating election. As to who are, and who are not Democrats in each township, is a question which must of necessity be left to the honest judgement and discrimination of those entrusted with the duty and responsibility of receiving and canvassing the ballots.

The First Grand Show of the Season—A Tent Temple of Amusement.

The novelty of the tenting season of 1878, Anderson & Co.'s Monster World Menagerie and Inter-Continental Circus, the most extensive and astonishing combination of attractions in the whole country, will give two exhibitions in Keytesville August 1st. This show has honorably gained a most enviable reputation, and is universally pronounced one of the most perfect exhibitions in existence. The Ohio State Journal, of Columbus, Ohio, thus comments: "Anderson & Co.'s gigantic Circus and Menagerie is a decided exception to the general rule, producing and performing all and even more than it advertises. The street parade is gorgeous in the extreme, a moving, brilliant panorama of glittering effects, novelties and attractions. After viewing the grand free procession as it proudly parades the streets one naturally supposes that the bulk of the show has been seen, but we can assure our friends that there are numberless things to see beneath the monster tents. Among the interesting features of the show are a vast zoological garden, presenting the freshest, rarest and about the most extensive collection of wild animals ever placed on exhibition, a temple of the most prodigious living human marvels, an aviary of gorgeously plumed birds, and educated animals of all kinds. The circus department, where, of course, the greatest interest lies, includes a large number of the most accomplished artists in the country. There are a whole family of clowns, immortal darning horse-back and pad riders, bold male and female, skilled gymnasts, wonderful acrobats, squadrons of thoroughbred horses and a host of brilliantly uniformed retainers. Throughout the entire performance there was not a word spoken, as a gesture made, that could in any possible way offend the most fastidious. The entire show is new, costly and brilliant, and we can assure our amusement lovers in other places where this show is to travel, that a rich treat is in store for them when Anderson & Co.'s Circus arrives in town."

Once Too Often
You neglect a cold and the lurking consumption steals in and you are lost. So with many debilitated ladies who suffer from Nervousness and functional derangement, thoughtless of the fact that neglected weakness invites the same fell destroyer. Banish these afflictions one and all with Parker's Ginger Tonic, a matchless vitalizing agent and corrective that affords the most gratifying relief from Nervousness and Painful Periods, establishes the habitual regularity of the female functions and prevents the development of Consumption in the feeble. The Aged and Infirm, the Weak and Convalescent, find it just the aid they need. It builds up and sustains the strength, diffuses warmth and energy through the system, banishes melancholy, and fortifies the powers of endurance. Designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative, is found in Parker's Hair Balsam. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots removes Dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to its original youthful color and beauty. Falling hair is immediately checked by its use, and it produces a growth of beautiful young hair, soft, glossy and luxuriant, that surprises everyone. These properties added to its exquisite perfume and purity of composition, render it the growing favorite of the toilet table everywhere.
